MESSES Skertchley and Denson, the concessionaries of what it is hoped will turn out a valuable tin mine, at Kowloon invited those of the public who are literested in the discovery of tin there to inspect the concession on Saturday siternoon. Some thirty or forty persons availed themsalves kohama on Tuesday, Aug. 4, and may of the invitation, and under the guidance of Messra Skertchley and Denson underwent more than two hours very violent exercise chiefly in scrambling up and sliding down crumbling precipices and balance ing themselves on the brinks of yawning abyases. Mr Skertchley, armed with an alpenstock, led the way, and showed atagility that a goat might envy and that the other members of the party vainly, tried to emulate. Much interest was taken in the object of the expedition and everybody seemed prepared to risk his life in order to see the specimens of tin which were frequently pointed out by the concessionaries. The P. & O. steamer Shanghai left Ant On the conclusion of the survey, the members of the party having refreshed themselves after their trying exertions, the the 4th August, and may be expected | concessionaries explained how the discovery of tip was made, and to what use they proposed to turn it. Their intention is in the first place to send shipments of ore to various markets to see what price it will fetch, and if the result is as good as they fally expect it to be they may then form a public company to work the mines. Mr Skertchley dilated on the apparent richness of the concession and expressed very sanguing visws concerning it.

THE Shanghai Mercury of 30th ult. says:-Confirmation of the rumours of fights in Honan between the party of operatives sent there by the Chinese Telegraph Company and the Natives of that province was brought here to-day by 18 ocolies who have just left the scene of the troubles. They say they barely escaped with their lives, having lost most of their effects in the disturbance. The Hunanese will not on any account have anything to do with Western contrivances. They posted up placards, saying they would kill whoever persisted in extending the line or tried to introduce any other invention of the hated Foreigner. The telegraph employes, however, went on with their work at first, in consequence of which a free fight ensued, and all the newly erected telegraph poles were torn down.
